MEET OUR JUDGES!

Thanks to our judges for donating their valuable time to assist us during the contest today!

Mr. Rob Anderson

Rob is a former vocalist who has sung in several group sessions, has jammed with several local musicians and has an uncanny ear for talent.

Mrs. Melissa Stahl

Melissa has been overseas to many different countries and loves all types of music. Previously she was in choir for 3 years and also played the clarinet for 3 years. She loves to hear different renditions of songs of all genres.

RULES

You must be 21 years or older to enter the 1st Annual COPPER COUNTRY KARAOKE CONTEST. Each contestant is given a copy of the rules in which they must agree to before competing.

To view and/or download the complete set of rules and to read about how it works and our sponsors, please visit the KDL Entertainment web site at <http://thenikkinix.tripod.com/kdl/cckc//cckc.html>

PRIZES

What are the contestants competing for? Cash, prizes and trophies... all made possible by our sponsors who have been featured in this program. If you shop at these businesses and/or see the owners/managers out and about, please be sure to thank them for their very generous donations. This event would not be as successful without their support!

MEET OUR JUDGES!

Thanks to our judges for donating their valuable time to assist us during the contest today!

Mrs. Susie Utzman

Susie is a copper country native. She previously has been a member of her church choir, the Copper Country Ecumenical Choir, and has been competing in karaoke contests in the area since 1989. She still sings karaoke as a fun hobby.

Mr. Charles Fraser

Charles grew up in a culture full of soca and steel pan music in the Caribbean and also studied music there. He is also a music enthusiast and actively watches our nation's talent programs such as The Voice, American idol and America's Got Talent.

Ms. Renee Frantti

Renee has loved music since her early childhood. She and Ron Lahti have sung duets together for years. They have engaged in numerous events at the Calumet Theater and volunteer their time and talent by singing for the elderly at local nursing homes.

ABOUT THE HOST

Nicole Swan is an active vocalist and pianist. She has been singing since age five, has both placed in and won several karaoke contests throughout the years and has twice competed at the national level. She is also self taught on bass guitar.

Nicole is also an accomplished independent songwriter and music producer. On February 14th, 2013 Nicole released her first self composed and produced album, "So Long" and since then has released three singles, "Eternal", "Pieces of Life" and "The Henry B. Smith". Last year Nicole competed in the WLUC TV6 "Someplace Special" songwriting contest and her jingle placed in the top 5 of 61 entrants.

Nicole quite enjoys throwing karaoke parties at her residence and embraces donating her time and talent by performing live at various fundraisers and benefits. She also enjoys performing at jamborees. On July 5th of 2014 Nicole opened for Detroit's new rising Nashville artist, Paulina Jayne.
